Cold Days Dresden Files Series 14 by Jim Butcher

In true Jim Butcher fashion, Cold Days starts quick, builds steadily, grows to an almost combustible crescendo and then closes with a sequence of events that literally had my heart racing and me screaming out loud in outrage, shock, and frustration. Well over 10 books ago I would have said that I didn't think it could get any better. I'd have been wrong. It has, it does, and I have a feeling <http://chrismillerworks.co/Cold-Days--Dresden-Files-Series--14--by-Jim-Butcher--.pdf>

Chaos in the Countryside by Astoria Wright NOOK Book

I usually read book series where the Fae are a little more aggressive, like the October Daye Series by Seanan McGuire or The Dresden Files by Jim Butcher. So this was an interesting change of pace. So much sweetness in Moss Hill, that I will be interested to see if over time the series gets a little darker.

Overall the story was very well written. There were some spelling and grammar mistakes
