The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

Section I - Medical Decision-Making This section discusses the ethics of making medical decisions for patients incapable of such decisions, when there is disagreement about treatment. For instance, should a physician override the decision made by a substitute decision-maker not to administer pain-reducing drugs to the patient who is clearly in pain?

Evolutionary Economic Geography Location of production

Making a decision about the location of a firm or an industry is a complex, uncertain and risky task. It comes as no surprise that the national or regional production geography does not always change very quickly. Biology, economics and evolution In the preface to the eighth edition of his Principles of Economics Marshall stated: The Mecca for
