You Are What You Read Socialization Project for Sociology

My students need a sampling of children's books, binding to make their own reports, staples to display their work, and a world map. You are what you read - at least in the eyes of a sociologist. In sociology class, we make the concept of socialization in childhood come alive by analyzing children's books and creating reports.

1 The Power of Storytelling in the Classroom

The Power of Storytelling in the Classroom. 5. 6. Chapter 1. Engaging Reluctant Learners. At times storytelling works when reading aloud doesn't. Tim Jennings, who was once a classroom teacher, says he became a storyteller to survive. He described his experience of teaching a group of extremely troubled ten- to sixteen-year-olds how to read. He loved to read aloud and thought that was a
